

DULLES-HAYS

WASHINGTON (AP)—CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY DIRECTOR ALLEN M. DULLES WAS URGED TODAY TO MAKE PUBLIC SOME OF THE RESULTS OF U.S. RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS OVER THE SOVIET UNION.

SEN. HAYS (D-OHIO) SAID AFTER A SUPERSECRET SESSION WITH DULLES HE HAD URGED THE INTELLIGENCE CHIEF "TO FIND SOME WAY TO TELL THE AMERICAN PUBLIC SOMETHING OF WHAT HE TOLD US. THE IMPACT WOULD BE TERRIFIC."

HAYS SAID HE SUGGESTED THE REQUEST BE PUT UP TO PRESIDENT EISENHOWER IF NECESSARY.

AT THE DAY-LONG, WELL - GUARDED SESSION, THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF WHICH HAYS IS A MEMBER, APPARENTLY GOT A FILL-IN ON SOME OF THE INFORMATION ABOUT SOVIET MILITARY PREPAREDNESS GAINED BY THE OVERFLIGHTS.

MEMBERS WOULD NOT TALK ABOUT WHAT DULLES SAID. REPORTERS GOT THE IMPRESSION, HOWEVER, THAT HE HAD GIVEN A STRONG DEFENSE OF THE RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS AS SUCH AND OF THE DECISION TO KEEP THEM GOING, DESPITE THE APPROACH OF THE SUMMIT CONFERENCE, EVENIF HE DID NOT CONVINCE ALL THE COMMITTEE THAT MISTAKES HAD BEEN AVOIDED IN HANDLING OF THE PLANE DOWNING AFTER IT OCCURRED.
